

John Travisano

VICE PRESIDENT

John is a Vice President at Bestige Holdings, where he focuses on executing the firm's investment strategy. He plays an integral role across the investment lifecycle, including industry research, sourcing, evaluating, and executing new acquisitions, as well as supporting management teams through the integration process to ensure a smooth transition and position them for long-term success.

With more than seven years of experience in private equity and investment banking, John has developed deep expertise in financial analysis, due diligence, transaction structuring, and portfolio management. Prior to joining Bestige, he spent five years in private equity at Access Holdings, where he concentrated on lower middle-market buyouts and growth-oriented investments. Earlier in his career, he worked in investment banking at Brentwood Capital Advisors, advising clients on M&A transactions, debt and equity financings, and strategic alternatives. Throughout his career, John has been passionate about collaborating with entrepreneurs and leadership teams to unlock new opportunities and build strong, values-driven relationships that extend beyond the transaction.

Originally from Maryland, John earned a degree in Finance and Economics from the University of Notre Dame, where he was also a member of the Men's Lacrosse team. Now based in Nashville with his wife and daughter, he enjoys golf, traveling, family time, and rooting for the Philadelphia Eagles.

