

Logan McLeod

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Logan is a Senior Associate at Bestige Holdings. Since joining the firm, he has assisted in the execution of many of the firm's core investing activities including industry research, financial due diligence, portfolio monitoring, financial analysis, modeling, and reporting. He is passionate about partnering with great businesses and their teams.

Logan is an active Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and graduate of the University of Tennessee Knoxville, holding both an undergraduate degree and a master's in accounting. With a solid foundation in accounting, Logan has cultivated a successful career in transaction advisory consulting and investment banking prior to joining Bestige.

His expertise lies in transaction consulting, financial due diligence, quality of earnings, and comprehensive financial analysis. Having served as a Transaction Advisory Consultant for KPMG in the healthcare industry, Logan has demonstrated a keen ability to navigate complex financial landscapes.

A proud resident of Nashville, Tennessee, Logan's hobbies include golf, hunting, and avidly supporting local sports teams such as the Tennessee Titans, Volunteers, and the Nashville Predators.

