

Scott Matthews

MD, INVESTMENT TEAM LEAD

Scott is a Managing Director and the Investment Team Lead at Bestige Holdings. In his role, he leads the firm's investment team responsible for investment thesis development, sourcing and execution of new investment partnerships, and corporate development activities across the portfolio. Previously, Scott was Head of Corporate Development, partnering with the investment team and senior management of our portfolio companies to implement sustainable add-on M&A, integration, and greenfield expansion plans for the businesses. Scott brings over 14 years' professional experience to the role across middle-market operating companies and investment firms. Over his career, he has led numerous verticals in the areas of corporate development/M&A, operations, and finance within high-growth middle-market companies.

Prior to joining Bestige, Scott served as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Triumph Orthopedic Partners, a growth and business services organization focused on partnering with leading orthopedic practices and backed by Shore Capital Partners. Before Triumph, Scott was Senior Vice President of Operations for MAP Health Management, a tele-health provider of behavioral healthcare services backed by CVS/Aetna. In his role, Scott was responsible for scaling operations across 20 states and over 140 referral partners, while supporting corporate development, finance, IT, customer success, payor relations, and strategic partnerships.

Earlier in his career, Scott was Vice President of Corporate Development at Tri-Private Capital, a single-family office focused on building high-growth healthcare companies, and an Analyst in the Investment Banking Group at Avondale Partners, supporting M&A transactions for clients in the business services, healthcare, and technology sectors.

Originally from Baltimore, Scott is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University where he was a member of the Men's Division I Lacrosse team. Now residing in Nashville with his wife and daughter, they enjoy maximizing time outdoors, taking in the vibrant live music scene, and supporting Metro Parks Nashville and Friends of Shelby Park and Bottoms.

